

RUBRIC: DIVERSITY¹

Learning Outcome: Students will demonstrate knowledge of cultural differences.
Competencies	Advanced 4	Proficient 3	Developing 2	Beginning 1
Knowledge of Diversity Student can describe the experiences, perspectives, and cultural values of one or more groups who live within a culture different than their own.	Demonstrates a deep understanding of the experiences, perspectives, and cultural values of one or more groups who live within a culture different than their own.	Demonstrates a detailed knowledge of the experiences, perspectives, and cultural values of one or more groups who live within a culture different than their own.	Demonstrates a basic knowledge of the experiences, perspectives, and cultural values of one or more groups who live within a culture different than their own.	Demonstrates a limited understanding of the experiences, perspectives, and cultural values of one or more groups who live within a culture different than their own.
Understanding of Diversity Student can identify and assess how different cultures have related to each other either in the past or the present.	Demonstrates a deep understanding of and assessment of how different cultures have related to each other either in the past or the present.	Identifies and assesses how different cultures have related to each other either in the past or the present.	Clearly identifies but is not able to provide more than a simple explanation of how different cultures have related to each other either in the past or the present.	Identifies different cultures but is unable to explain how they have related to each other either in the past or the present.

¹ Taken, in part, from UMO GenEd.